

Olympic Medals Dashboard

Madelyn Redick and Sahana Dhar
Northeastern University

Instructions

Scatter Plot

Olympic Medals Dashboard

Welcome to the Olympic Medals Dashboard. This dashboard allows you to explore Olympic medal data by selecting sports, countries,

Instructions:

- Select one or more sports from the "Select Sports" dropdown. You can choose one or multiple sports to analyze.
- Choose one or more countries from the "Select Countries" dropdown. Select the countries you want to include in the analysis.
- Use the "Select Medal(s)" checklist to choose the types of medals (Gold, Silver, Bronze) you want to include in the analysis.
- Adjust the year range using the Range Slider to focus on specific years of interest.
- In the "Scatter Plot" tab, you'll see a line chart showing the medal count over time for the selected sports, countries, medals, and
- In the "Histogram" tab, a histogram displays the distribution of medals for the selected criteria.

Feel free to enjoy the visualizations and gain insight into Olympic medal statistics. Enjoy exploring the Olympic Medals Dashboard!

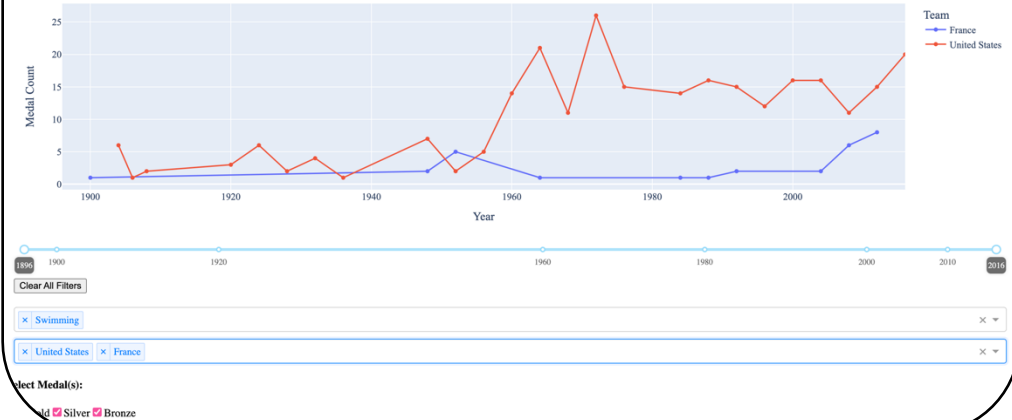

The Olympic Medals Dashboard makes it easy for users to filter, visualize, and explore Olympic medal data, enabling them to gain valuable insights from the dataset. Whether users are interested in the performance of specific countries, sports, or the evolution of medals won over time, this dashboard provides a user-friendly interface to analyze the data conveniently.

Instructions

Scatter Plot

Histogram

Gold, Silver, and Bronze Medals Over Time for Swimming

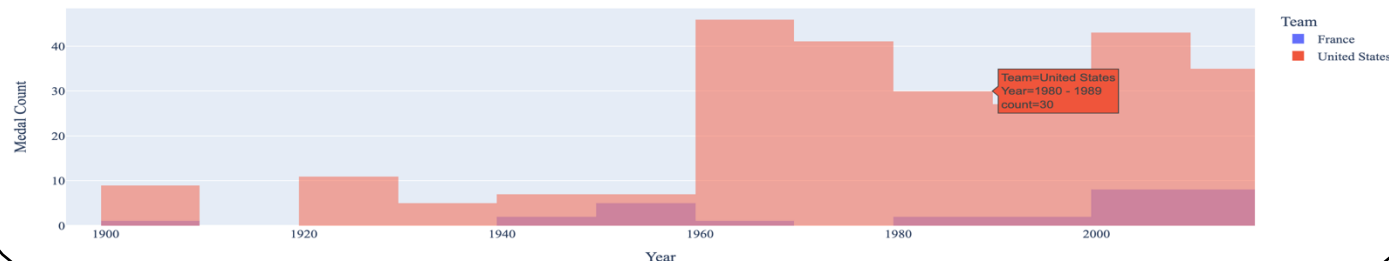

Instructions

Scatter Plot

Histogram

Medal Count Histogram

Dash Components:

- Dropdown to select multiple sports and countries
- Checklist to select medal type
- Year Range Slider
- Scatterplot/Histogram- for distribution analysis
- Markdown cell with dash instructions (not displayed)
- Clear all button

Northeastern University